

MANAGE THROUGH THE PROCESS

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA WITH INTERNSHIP IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Apply a global perspective to core business functions, including human resources, marketing, and finance.
- Define project vision and scope while identifying key stakeholders and end users.
- Develop strategies to manage change, overcome impediments, and collaborate effectively across teams.
- Integrate coursework and internship experience to prepare for a career in project management.

Project managers are employed across all industries, and demand continues to grow for professionals with global competencies. This program prepares you to manage projects of all sizes—from initiation through completion—within an international business context.

Rooted in PMI standards, the curriculum builds expertise in the core facets of project management, including scope, scheduling, quality control, cost control, team building, leadership, and risk management. A required professional development course strengthens your career readiness and prepares you to apply these skills during a third-quarter internship.

You'll gain hands-on experience using industry tools while developing best practices in scheduling, budgeting, reporting, and quality control. Apply your knowledge in the workplace through a three-month internship or curricular practical training, where you'll increase productivity, establish clear objectives, balance stakeholder demands, and deliver projects on time and on budget.
